

Office of the Mayor
City of Fayetteville
Proclamation

- WHEREAS: National Correctional Officers and Employees Week was first proclaimed on May 5, 1984 by President Ronald Reagan, and
- WHEREAS: this week has been set aside to recognize our correctional staff for their professionalism, hard work, dedication and efforts to protect those in their custody and the community, and
- WHEREAS: in the Northwest Arkansas Community Correction Center, staff are called upon to fulfill, simultaneously, custodial, supervisory and counseling roles, while keeping the safety of the general public their highest priority, and
- WHEREAS: our well-trained, educated and highly skilled correctional staff work in a very demanding environment with the great responsibility of executing the mandates of the court, maintaining the public safety, and assisting offenders to develop social and life skills, and
- WHEREAS: it is appropriate that we recognize the contributions and accomplishments of these men and women who are a vital component of the field of corrections and of our community.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Lioneld Jordan, Mayor of the City of Fayetteville, Arkansas do hereby proclaim May 6-10, 2019 as in Fayetteville, Arkansas and call upon our citizens to join with me in acknowledging our correctional employees and to show our sincere thanks and appreciation for their service and dedication.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Fayetteville, Arkansas to be affixed on the 6th day of May, 2019.

Mayor
